

معهد الدوحة الدولي للدراسات الأسرية والتنمية

DOHA INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE
for Family Studies and Development

عضو في مؤسسة قطر
Member of Qatar Foundation

Launch at the United Nations

The Family and the MDGs

Using Family Capital to Achieve the Millennium Development Goals

14 May 2012

Programme

- Welcome Remarks: H.E. Sheikh Meshal Bin Hamad Al Thani, Permanent Representative of the State of Qatar to the UN
- Purpose of the book: H.E. Noor Al Malki, Executive Director, Doha International Institute For Studies & Development
- Description of the book: Ms. Nada Frangieh, Family Research Director
- Goals for the use: “The Family and the MDGs”, By Ms. Susan Roylance Author/compiler/editor
- Introduction of the chapter authors. Each author will explain how using “Family Capital” can help achieve their particular Millennium Development Goal:

The Family – E. Douglas Clark

MDG1 – Overcoming Poverty and Hunger, Jastus Suchi

Obadiah

MDG2 – Universal Primary Education, Mary M. Harris

MDG3 – Gender Equality, Lynn R Walsh, MSW

MDG 4 – Reducing Child Mortality, Robert B. Clark, MD
MPH

MDG 5 – Improving Maternal Health, Renae Morgan (MPH(c))

MDG 6 – Combat HIV/AIDS & Other Diseases, Terrance D.
Olson, Ph.D.

MDG 7 – Environmental Sustainability, Robert C. Roylance

MDG 8 – Global Partnerships, Vincenzina Santoro

- The Millennium Development Goals and the Family: Ms. Renata Kaczmarek, UN Focal Point on the Family
- Discussion – Questions and Answers